

Great North Maths Hub

A level Pedagogy Work Group

- Focus: Reasoning and problem-solving in A level Maths
- Cost: Free
- Structure: 3 face-to-face half-day sessions across the year
- Location: Cramlington Learning Village, NE23 6BN
- Details: Collaborate with subject experts and colleagues from across the region to develop your post-16 teaching practice. This Work Group will explore reasoning and problem-solving in A level Maths to develop your students' deeper understanding from topics across the course. You will engage with educational research and trial new approaches in your school, with training input from the Maths Hubs and AMSP.
- Audience: A level Maths teachers of any experience are welcome. You will benefit most if you are teaching some A level Maths this year to trial any new approaches.
